INDIAN EDUCATION FOR ALL - ADC
Supplemental Information

The following information is provided to assist schools and districts in understanding the requirements of the accreditation standards relating to, and in support of, the Indian Education for All Law, MCA 20-1-501.

- I. The Indian Education Law, 20-1-501, MCA was passed by the 1999 Legislature to ensure the implementation of Article X, section 1(2) of the Montana Constitution to recognize "the distinct and unique cultural heritage of American Indians and to be committed in its educational goals to the preservation of their cultural heritage."

The full text of this statute is as follows:

20-1-501. Recognition of American Indian cultural heritage -- legislative intent

- (1) It is the constitutionally declared policy of this state to recognize the distinct and unique cultural heritage of American Indians and to be committed in its educational goals to the preservation of their cultural heritage.
- (2) It is the intent of the legislature that in accordance with Article X, section 1(2), of the Montana constitution:
 - (a) Every Montanan, whether Indian or non-Indian, be encouraged to learn about the distinct and unique heritage of American Indians in a culturally responsive manner; and
 - (b) Every educational agency and all educational personnel will work cooperatively with Montana tribes or those tribes that are in close proximity, when providing instruction or when implementing an educational goal or adopting a rule related to the education of each Montana citizen, to include information specific to the cultural heritage and contemporary contributions of American Indians, with particular emphasis on Montana Indian tribal groups and governments.
- (3) It is also the intent of this part, predicated on the belief that all school personnel should have an understanding and awareness of Indian tribes to help them relate effectively with Indian students and parents, that educational personnel provide means by which school personnel will gain an understanding of and appreciation for the American Indian people.

- II. The Montana accreditation standards address the intent of the Indian Education for All law in the following areas. Schools and districts need to evaluate their respective education programs in light of these standards.

The Administrative Rules of Montana provide as follows:

ARM 10.55.603 – Curriculum Development and Assessment

- (2) ... school districts shall ... (d) review curricula to ensure the inclusion of the distinct and unique cultural heritage of American Indians.

ARM 10.55.701 – School Leadership

- (3) Each school district shall have in writing and available to the staff and public ... (o) a policy that incorporates the distinct and unique cultural heritage of American Indians that is aligned with district educational goals.

ARM 10.55.803 – Learner Access

- (2) In developing curricula in all program areas, the board of trustees shall: ...
 - (c) develop an understanding of the values and contributions of Montana's American Indians for all students; (d) provide learning resources that are culturally relevant, inclusive, and current; ... and (h) provide books and materials that reflect authentic historical and contemporary portrayals of American Indians.

ARM 10.55.1003 – Program Foundation Standards
(Content and Performance Standards)

- (1) ... All programs shall ... (a)(i) incorporate in curricular programs the distinct and unique cultural heritage of American Indians.

The Office of Public Instruction has developed more detailed materials to assist schools in implementing the requirements of the above standards. These materials can be found on the OPI website at <http://www.opi.state.mt.us/IndianEd/Index.html>
